

Scenario

The date is May 30, 2014. Your patient arrives at the Emergency Department presenting with a fever and worsening cough....

Task	Question	Answer/Initials
1. Search for your patient using their Health Card Number: 9708718987 Last Name: Livsey Gender: F.
2. Change the timeline to be January 1, 2013 to May 30, 2014.
3. To see detailed lab results, open up the Lab and Pathology Results portlet using the navigation bar.
4. Go to the All tab and group the "ordered as" column alphabetically to find CBC results.
5. Filter by leukocytes.
6. Open the OLIS full report dated May 15, 2014.	What was the leukocyte cell count?	7.0 x10e9/L
7. You want to see what other abnormal results exist. Sort the "All Labs" tab by abnormal lab results.	How is an abnormal result indicated?	Red print
8. You want to trend of the HbA1c results in a flowsheet. Go to the flowsheet view.
9. Change the chronological order in the flowsheet display.	What is the most recent fasting glucose available?	9.5 mmol/L
10. Exit the flowsheet by going to the "All" tab. Customize the Lab and Pathology Results portlet to display the "Result" and "Test" columns on the far left. Add the "Source" column to the far right.
11. Change the view back to the system default.		